

Summer Party with Fizz

30th Anniversary Lecture and Lunch

Thursday, June 21, 2018

Stanford Hall, Lutterworth, Leics LE17 6DH

Stanford Hall is the ancestral home of the Cave family from c. 1430. The hall was built in the 1690s for Sir Roger Cave on the site of the earlier manor house. Described by Simon Jenkins as the "perfect William and Mary house".

10:00 Arrive for tea/coffee and biscuits

10:45 Nick Fothergill to introduce himself and Stanford Hall

11:00 Mary Alexander: BA in History and History of Art and an MA with distinction in History of Art, will give a lecture entitled

INTOXICATING COCKTAIL:

ART DESIGN AND NIGHTLIFE IN 1920/30's PARIS

We will meet the artists, designers, musicians, dancers and impresarios and recreate how it felt to be in the middle of this exciting new cocktail of talent.

12:15 Cocktails/Mocktails

1:00 Light Lunch followed by tea and coffee

Guests will be free to walk into the downstairs rooms of Stanford Hall (room guide in each room) and into the grounds. From 3:00 pm the 14thC Parish Church will be open with its magnificent stained glass and well preserved Cave Family Monuments.

Please complete the slip below with payment before February 26, 2018, to Mrs Ann Lees, 5 Edward Road, Market Harborough, Leicester , LE16 7AD Telephone 01858 465508 – e-mail: a.lees45@btinternet.com Should you not be able to download the form, please write your details on a sheet of paper and send as above.

The Arts Society Rutland Summer Lunch Thursday, June 21, 2018

Please book places (£38 per person/ £40 for non members)

Cheque enclosed for £ payable to The Arts Society Rutland

Name

Tel. Number..... E-mail

This is a ticketed event - please send an SAE